MEMORANDUM FOR: Vice President-Elect George Bush

SUBJECT : Your DCI Files

Mr. Bush:

[redacted] told me of having seen you this past weekend and your concern re the status of your DCI files, particularly since [redacted] is going overseas. Just a reminder that my 6 November letter of congratulations, which you so kindly acknowledged from Florida, contained the following:

"I have in my custody four boxes of official and personal files you and [redacted] left with me for retention. They are here just as you left them and when you are ensconced in your new office, you may wish to have some of the material readily available there. At any rate will be in touch with your office sometime after 20 January."

Attached is an inventory of your DCI material, some of which you may wish transferred to your office at a convenient time. Please feel free to have someone phone me and you may be sure that appropriate arrangements can be made.

Distribution:
